

4th Grade Summer Reading Suggestions

Recommended Books:

Amber Brown Goes Fourth by Paula Danziger 3.7

Back to School, Weird Kids Rule by Dan Gutman 3.8

Fantastic Mr. Fox by Roald Dahl 4.1

I Survived Hurricane Katrina by Lauren Tarshis 4.0

Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing by Judy Blume 3.3

The One and Only Ivan by Katherine Applegate 3.6

Choice Activities: These activities are optional. Students will receive extra credit for completing an activity based on one of the books above and submitting it to his/her Reading teacher the first week of school.

Comic Strip Draw a 10-panel comic strip of what happened in your book. This needs to fill up at least an entire page and include dialogue and colors.	Advertisement Create an advertisement for your book. This needs to fill an entire page and include intriguing details that would inspire people to read the book.	Timeline Pick 10 events from your book and create a timeline. Be sure that these events are important to the story and are in the right order that they occur.
Commercial Record a video about the book. Make sure you show the book in your video and include interesting details that would make people want to read the book. Make sure the video is at least a minute long!	Character Diary Imagine you are one of the characters in the book. Write 5 journal entries from the character's perspective. What is going on in their life? What are they thinking and feeling? Dig deep and add lots of details.	Sequel Write the first chapter of a sequel to the book. What would happen first? Make sure you use action and dialogue! This should be at least one handwritten page (about half a page typed).