On our first day at the pool all campers will be tested on their swimming ability. Those who are able to swim overhand across the width of the pool (approximately 25 yards) without stopping or putting their feet down, will pass as swimmers. Of those qualifying as swimmers, only those with parental permission (given below) will be allowed to dive or swim in the deep end of the pool. Other swimmers will remain in the shallow end.

_____ My child is a very good swimmer and has my permission to be tested for swimming in the deep end of the pool.

_____ My child does swim, but I would prefer him/her to remain in the shallow end of the pool.

_____ My child does not swim and he/she needs to be taken to the children's wading pool.

Discipline: I agree that consistent Christian attitude and action of campers must be maintained. Therefore, if my child exhibits inappropriate behavior, non-physical discipline measures will be taken. If my child does not respond to firm correction or time out, I may be called by the administration to immediately pick up my child for the remainder of the day. I further understand that continued misbehavior could result in suspension and/or expulsion from the camp. Initials _____

Dress Code: Modesty is the key. I am aware that the dress code requires camp t-shirts are to be worn for off campus trips. Modest shirts are to be worn while at camp (no spaghetti straps, shoulders to be covered). Campers may wear shorts, no shorter than mid-thigh, jeans, pants, or capris with a camp t-shirt. If they wear a skirt or dress, shorts must be worn underneath. Bathing suits must be one piece or a long tankini for girls and a camp t-shirt must be worn over it. If a camper shows up to camp without a camp t-shirt, one must be purchased in order to attend camp. Initials _____

Medical Release: In case of accident or injury, I will be contacted, as well as the necessary medical professionals. I agree to hold BCS Camp and its staff, free from any property damage and/or personal liability. I further agree that our personal insurance coverage will be the primary insurance on my child. If there is any change in coverage, I will contact the business office. Initials _____
