  - Complete the chart as shown below using correct MLA formatting.

| Meaningful Quote: Who said it and what page the quote is found on.   | Explain the circumstances behind the quote (provide background details, such as time, place, and situation in which the quote was spoken).3-4 sentences   | Explain why the quote is important to the story. (3-5 sentences)   |
|---|--|---|
| "I don't remember ever hating anyone before, but this morning I hated Gimpy with all my heart." Charlie Gordon said this quote.(Keys 312) | Charlie, who had a low IQ at the beginning of the book, had a surgery done that made him smarter and is now noticing many parts of his life he never did before. For example, he can now read the signs outside the bakery and remember his family members' names. He thinks this quote when he goes back to work at his old job at Donner's Bakery and realizes Gimpy is not only cheating Mr. Donner, but was using Charlie to help him when Charlie wasn't "smart" enough to understand it earlier in the book. | This quote is important because it shows how much Charlie's new knowledge has changed him and also shows how it can have a negative effect. He didn't expect - he now knows information he doesn't necessarily want to know, and has to deal with new difficulties in his relationships with people. Sometimes knowing is not always for the better. There are times people do not need to know everything for their own protection. |

PARENTS AND STUDENTS PLEASE NOTE:

- As a Christian, a person may wonder, "Should Christians study the classics of literature?" Christians should be aware that man's writings reflect his inner thoughts. This can be seen throughout a study of literature and the authors' lives. If we look at secular literature (classics) through discerning eyes, our own faith and testimony can be strengthened. The selections chosen for the reading list are either classic in nature or carry strong literary merit. Berean Christian School cannot be responsible for all content in every selection.
- Please be advised: copied, summarized, or paraphrased information from an internet source or any other source is unacceptable. THIS IS PLAGIARISM! Be sure to correctly document sources that are used and use your own thoughts based on what you have learned to complete ANY writing assignment. Common knowledge and your own thoughts do NOT need to be documented.
- MLA formatting and plagiarism will be covered in class during the first week of school.
